THE PROTESTANT ORPHAN ASYLUM .- Persons con nected with charitable associations of this city, learn ing that the Protestant Orphan Asylum was too lim ited in its means to provide adequately for the de titute children requiring its support, have asked of the managers a statement of its condition, with a view to its relief. The ladies who manage it have concluded to make their statement public, that all v ho are inclined to take some care of the helpless and unfortunate children, and contribute to their main tenance and education, may know where their charity can be beneficially bestowed, both as regards the objects of it and the city of which they form a part The Protestant Orphan Asylum of Washington nurtures and educates a family of fifty or sixty orphans, at a cost of from $2,500 to $3,000 per an num. I's means are, $560 from regular subscribers.

$784 from invested legacies and donations, $200 from the Orphan Asylum of Georgetown for the support of four of its orphans. The entire fund which may be relied on with some certainty for supplies is little more than $1,500. Fortuitous contributions have from time to time relieved the institution from the arrearages incident to its narrow means. Supplies being obtained in the interim on credit, when the money at command was exhausted, a debt of thousand dollars thus contracted was, during the last year, paid by collections taken up in several of The report of the Philadelphia Orphan Society, probably one of the best-managed charities in our untry, shows that, during the last year, one hundred and twelve orphans were supported and educa gd, at a charge of $8,631. The Washington asylum, during the same time, maintained and educated gitty children, at a cost of about $3,000. The Philadelphia institution has grown strong in resources by the liberality of benevolent individuals and associanons; its income exceeds its expenditures. The Washington institution, which has its foundation in the real estate given by Mrs. Marcia Van Ness and the edifice erected on it by subscription, would be enabled to do all that is necessary for the destitute orphans of the metropolis if it could add to its means certain annuity of $1,500. Cannot the benevolent associations of our city, the prosperous and charita-ble among its citizens, who would build up its repu-tation and their own, contribute means to establish such a fund? The managers appeal to all charita ble associations and such individuals to take some measures to assure the permanent prosperity of the stitution; or at least to make provision against the hardships to be expected from the death of the coming winter. The care of the destitute orphans of the metropolis are committed to it; and yet the city government, instead of contributing to sustain this savium of 1 s own poor forsaken children, taxes its property to make streets, pavements, pumps, &c. for the public emolument. This is to take from the for the public emolument. This is to take from the food and raiment supplied by charity to the most harmless, helpless, hopeless of our race—little ones unable to work or beg, and yet such as, if allowed to live, become useful members of the community; mechanics who build up the city, tradesmen who contribute to its wealth and comfort, to some of whom we p int with pride as patsons of the institution and those who emerge from it.

BREAD, BREAD, BREAD!-The bakers have been compelled to raise the price of their loaves, as may be seen by their card, owing to the action of the City Councils. Hereafter the price will be five cents per pound loaf to those who sell again, and a fip to private customers. Well, we must have something weat, if it is a fact that bread has " riz." "Our stomachs Will make what's homely, savory."

In this connection we give the views of a correscondent, who communicates the following:

" As the public mind is very naturally interested in the question of the degree of evaporation of mois ng up of bread, and the genera opinion of the European bakers as to the proportion of the water and salt in this necessary of life, it may be satisfactory to the public to know from the highest authority what that proportion is. The follow-ing is therefore taken from McCulloch's Commercial Dictionary, the result of an examination before the British House of Commons. In page 242 it is stated that "one-fifth of the loaf is supposed to consist of water and salt and four-fifths of flour. Good flour requires more water than bad flour and old flour more than new flour." Doing WELL-CARBLESS DRIVING .- The little boy, son of Mr. McDermott, on D street, who was run over by a baggage wagon at the corner of Seventh and D streets, on Tuesday, we are gratified to learn is doing well. In this case, wel understand, the driver of the wagon made every effort to save the child, and does not come under the censure of the Intelligencer for "careless and criminal driving." Seve-al gentlemen present speak of his humanity in the matter. There were two children in the danger one of whom escaped by the efforts of the driver, the son of Mr. McD. unfortunately getting under the wheels of the wagon. It all arose, we hear, from the confusion of the children, occasioned by some carts and other vehicles coming near each other at the same point. The intelligencer's remarks, in censure of the careless and criminal driving of the drivers of the city, are just, however, in a general sense; and we should like to see the laws enforced against such offenders. It is almost as difficult to cross a street in Washington, owing to the fast-going vehicles, as it is in the thickly pepulated parts of

Two ORPHAN Boys .- " Mercury" thus notices the case of two destitute orphans:

" Last evening, two small lads, giving their names as John and Edward Sincox, applied at the residence of Mr. W. F. Price, Capitol Hill, for something to eat and a place for lodgings. They stated toat their father had been dead for a year or two, and that la t week their mother died in Alexandria, Va.; that her effects were sold towards defraying the funeral ex-penses; that they were provided for by some neighbor, who kept them for a few days, when they were advised to depart and proceed to this city, and, if possible, to Baltimore, where it is supposed they have a brother named Michael Sincox, by trade a bricklayer. 'I he boys had mo money nor shoes, and had been watching an opport unity to catch on behind the cars. Mr. Price and his family having refreshed them with a good supper, obtained the aid of the Rev. Mr. Gilliss, and for the present the wandering orphans are taken care of in the Protestant Orphan asylum. They are Irish boys, appear to be well behaved. and are smart little fellows. It is hoped this notice will meet the eye of their elder brother.

GRAND HOUSE FURNISSING WARD ROOMS .-Everything that housekeepers want, except cabinet ware, can be had at the magnificent store of Mr. C. W. Boteler, Iron Hall, Penrayivania Avenue. Rich and useful are his English and French, China and queens ware; cut, plain and pressed and glass ware; silver-plated and albaia ware; American, English Britania ware lamps, girandoles, &c., bronzed fron good; cutlery and family hardware; jappannery and black tin ware; gas fixtures; wood and willow ware; brushes, mats and brooms; and looking glasses of every size and variety. His Chi na ornaments and tea ware are particularly beautiful, and the new stock just received, most attractive. At Mr. Boteler's store, house-keepers and others wanting things in his line, would do well to call. There is not a store of the kind in the United States that has a stock selected with more care or taste.

TRANSPLANTING TREES-West Engl.-This is the season, the sap of trees being down, for transplanting them, and we find the public gardener has his assistants busily engaged in the work. They are operating now at the West End, Mr. Happt acting during the present regretted illness of Mr. Maher. Before December, they have to transplant thousand of trees, &c., requiring the most diligent attention.

A visit to the West End now affords a lively appearance. The many improvements going on, and completed, ready for the ornamental work now being done by the gardeners. The fine lamps, the new houses, the whole appearance in this quarter of the city, shows a decided improvement

ETHE WING-WANG CLUB .- This significant and euphonious name has been given to an association just formed. It is composed of some of the principal beaux of our city, and its object is confined exclusively to the practice (be not alarmed, reader) of dancing. We learn that early in the ensuing month they propose giving a grand ball at Island Hall, and, by way of attracting some of our charming belles and elegant danseuses there, two valuable gold rings are offered, one to be given to the handsomest lady present, and the other to the most accomplished in grace and motions of the feet. The club has a chief officer, and as indicative of its name they have given him the descriptive title of Great Grand Pow-Wow. At twelve o'clock the presentation will take place, when the Great Grand will appear in appropriete costume, and after an explanatory speech of the origin of the association, and of its social character, he will place the rings on the fingers of the respective ladies as chosen by him. We trust the club will not omit sending us an invitation for that evening, that we may be present at so interesting a fetist.

DISEASE AMONG THE CHASAPEAKE BAY OYSTERS. A Baltimore correspondent of the National Intelligencer writes that it is a singular fact, and one important to be generally known, that the oysters of our waters thus far this season, have proved markedly deleterious to health. Persons have been taken violently ill, after eating them (raw especially) with cramp, colic, cholera morbus, &c., and in some cases death has ensued. Crans, too, have produced similar results. An old and experienced fisherman states that in his judgment, oysters and crabs, this season, are impure, unhealthy, possessed of some poi-onous substance, and unsafe to be eaten. Such is not ascertained to be the case with Potomac or Norfolk oysters, as sold here by our oyster MRS. GEN. GAINES .- This lady is now in Washington with the view, we understand, of renewing her suit before the Supreme Court.

Another Donation to the ORPHANS .- Mrs. Margaret Lenox, who so liberally gave $1,000 to the Catholic Orphan Asylum, has also presented the Protestant Orphan Asylum, a donation of the same amount. From the pro ceedings of the Trustee of the latter we extract the following:

"The Trustees of the Washington City Orphan Asylum acknowledge gratefully a donation of one thousand dollars from Mrs. Margaret Lenox. Resolved. That the above sum be securely inves ted, and that the annual income therefrom, being applied to the sole use and benefit of orphan chiliren, according to the wish of the liberal donor, shall be presented separately, in the annual accounts, as coming from the Lenox fund."

SPEECH OF MR. BORROWS .- Mr. Borrows, Aldernan, from the Third Ward, informs us that he did not intend to apply the remarks he made on the Board last Monday evening, to "tavern-keepers" in connection with "lottery offices and gambling houses" as businesses only tolerated. He ment "tippling houses." We cheerfully make the correction to oblige the Doctor.

OFFICERS OF THE MARIONS. - The following young gentlemen have been chosen officers of the Marion Rifles, a new company of youths just being raised in this city : Captain, Francis M. Shekell; ist Lieut., Chas. P. Wroe; 2d do., Bernard Sears; 3d do., John Evans; Ensign, Wm. J. Walker; Orderly Sergeant, Chas. W. Hawke.

THE DELUGE PANORAMA.-A very crowded audi tory assembled at Odd Fellows' Hall, last evening. to view this work of art, and exhibited their admiration of the exhibition by frequent applause. The lecturer was particularly applauded for his graphic and impressive discription of the scenes from the Bible, which he so solemnly enunciated. Some boys interrupted the lecturer in such a manner, that called for their being put out, and we wonder that they were not. The Panorama is exhibited this evening, to-morrow afternoon, and for the last time on Saturday night. Run on A Bank .- Quite a run has been made on Messrs. Selden, Withers & Co., for the redemption of notes of the Trans-Alleghany Bank. This morning many of our citizens holding the paper, gathered at their banking-house to have the doubtful notes exchanged. We learn that all demands were promptly met. NEW CHUCH IN GEORGETOWN -The Methodis Episcopalians, of Georgetown, design building splendid new church, and will probably lay the cor ner stone next month. The site selected is on Georgetown heights, near the nunnery, and is a fine location for the imposing edifice intended to be erected ACCIDENT.-A man named Adem Hotsinger, fell from a high embankment near the Washington Rail road Depot, yesterday afternoon, cutting his head and wounding his ribs to such an extent-that he had to be conveyed to the Infirmary. He is an old man, a saddler by trade, and a stranger Lere, on his re-turn to North Carolina.

WARLIKE PREPARATIONS .- We learn from one the workmen employed in the U.S. Arsenal, in this city, that the manufacture of cartridges has been resumed at that place. The cartridges are loaded with the conical ball, the favorite of accurate riflemen. What's in the wind-war-d? THE "AMERICAN ORGAN."-This new paper, w understand, will appear on the 13th of next month It will be an afternoon issue of the size of the Union, and be sold at ten cents per week.

GEORGETOWN CORRESPONDENCE.

GEORGETOWN, October 27, 1854. The corner stone of the new Methodist church

we are informed, will be laid on next Wednesday. The Rev. Thos. Sewall, and the Rev. Mr. Dashiel of your city, are expected to deliver addresses on the occasion, beside various other clergymen. The masonic fraternity, we presume, will also be in at The fogs on our river and canal being unusually heavy, predisposing to billious complaints, our peo ple cannot be too careful of themselves and cautious in regard to their diet. The use of oysters especially and all kinds of stale vegetables, is highly injurious Owing to imprudence in eating, a number of sudden deaths has occured during the last few days. The two which occurred in the family of Mr. Tyler, o the Post Office Department, yesterday and the night before, are attributed, we learn, to the effluvia arising from a sewer which passes near the house. This we think very doubtful.

Mr. John Hurdle, son of Mr. Noble Hurdle, one our oldest and most respected citizens, has, from some cause unknown to his friends, during the last few weeks, gone entirely deranged, and has been taken by his friends to the Baltimore Infirmary. Mr. William Hardy, the oldest living man in Georgetown, and, probably, in the District of Co-lumbia, well known as old Father Hardy, has exhinited, we are sorry to learn, during the last few weeks, very evident symptoms of a rapid declin-Mr. Hardy is a native of Ireland. He emigrated to this country about the year 1783; landed in Balt more, where he married, and resided several years from there he removed to our city, where he has resided ever since. He has been a member of the Methodist Church over seventy years, and is one of the first who planted the standard of that very flourishing denomination of Christians in the District and surrounding country. He has no record or recollecsurrounding country. He has no record or recollec-tion of the year of his birth, but from many circumstances connected with his history, we have no doubt said land is overgrown with pine, and the soil is about his being at least one hundred years old, if BURROW'S ELIXIR VITÆ. Extracts from an editorial notice in the Portsmouth, Va Globe, July 13, 1854. Globe, July 13, 1854.

The Editor says: In this community this medicine scarcely requires a notice, it has been so often tested and its virtues so well known from the numerous cases of its successful use, that it is sold now just as readily without prescription or recommendation for the diseases for which it is recommended, as quinine is for chills.

In the local column of the Norfolk Daily Courier, the Editor in speaking of this preparation says. It is certainly a tor in speaking of this preparation says: It is certainly a great medicine, and within our own knowledge has restored those who were considered beyond all human aid. Time would fail to enumerate those cured of the Farious Chronic Diseases, Nervous Disorders, Ulcers, Putrid Throat, Fevers, Syphilis, Dyspepsia, Incapacitated Youths, Ague and Fever,
